WHOLE COUNTRYSIDE TORN UP BY ONE SMALL CALF

One lone small calf has stirred up a series of events which threaten to involve in endless litigation, one of the largest cattle companies in the Verde Valley, and Jack Wilson, a well known rancher with interests near the Coconino county line. Wilson has been arrested on the complaint of Lew H. Mickey, an inspector for the state live-stock sanitary board, who charges the former with the theft of the calf in question from the Coconino Cattle Co.

The complaint was sworn to before Judge W. R. Hughes. The charge was made following the issuance of a writ of replevin to Wilson for the recovery of the calf which he is accused of stealing. Wilson was released under bonds in the sum of $500, which were furnished.

The matter first came up in the local court, when Wilson appeared and requested a writ of replevin against the cattle company, stating that the company was illegally holding a calf which belonged to him. Following the issuance of the writ, Mickey appeared and informed the justice that the calf was temporarily the property of the state. To settle the question of ownership, he preferred a felony charge against the rancher.

Each side will be represented by a number of witnesses who are expected to testify as to the parentage of the animal. Wilson claims to have the mother of the calf in his possession, and to support his statement has produced another calf which is identical in marking to the one involved in the trial. The case has been set for hearing this week.—Jerome News.

WOOL POOLING PAYS PREMIUM

In certain sections of the fleece-growing states wool pooling has gained greatly in popularity. Small producers who formerly were unable to market their wool as individuals in a profitable manner, can now combine with their neighbors and produce a sufficient supply of graded, quality wool to make it attractive for the eastern wool merchants to bid on these fleeces. During the last year the various co-operative associations have sold their wool for prices ranging from 1 to 8 cents premium a pound above the prices offered by the local buyers for the same clips.

MUSICAL EFFECTS

"You have advanced your prices enormously," complained the cafe proprietor. "Only enough to meet overhead charges," answered the orchestra leader. "We have a new jazz number in which we kick a hole into the bass viol at every performance."

MATTER OF REAL IMPORTANCE

Fortune Teller: "Do you want to know what your future husband will be like?" Fashionable Little Party: "Good gracious, no! What I want to know is what the summer hats will be like!"

ALL THE SAME TO HER

"I shall have to ask you for a ticket for that boy, ma'am," insisted a conductor, speaking to a quiet-looking little woman. The woman declined to pay. "I am afraid if you don't pay for that boy I'll have to stop the train and put him off," he persisted. "All right; it's all the same to me," she said. "You ought to know the rules. How old is that boy?" "I don't know. I never saw him before."

TIP FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paderewski is going to be the president of Poland. Then, why not place McCormack, the Irish sweet singer, at the head of the population of the Emerald Isle, and elect Caruso president of Italy? Thus might harmony be established in Europe.

SHE HAD HIM

Husband and wife were having words, when he said: "I don't believe in parading my virtues." "No?" answered the wife. "Do you think you could, dear? It takes a number, you know, to make a parade."

DROPPING A PASSENGER

Traveler (on the aerial express): "I want to drop into Hickville, conductor." Conductor (looking at his watch): "Strap on your parachute; you walk the plank in seven minutes."

FEMININE

"My husband is so jealous." "How absurd!" "Why, isn't yours?" "Of course not." "How humiliating!"

NOTICE TO CATTLE GROWERS

Notice is hereby given of House Bill No. 34, approved February 24, 1919, and being an act of the legislature entitled:

"An act to amend Chapter 1, of Title 30, of Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1913, Civil Code, by adding a new paragraph thereto, to be referred to as Paragraph 3757-A, to provide therein for the re-record of brands for livestock; for a cancellation of brands in certain cases; for penalties for use of brands not recorded; granting certain powers to Live-Stock Sanitary Board as to matters of said act. To repeal acts and parts of acts inconsistent therewith."

and of the provisions of subdivision two thereof, as follows:

"Within six months from the date of the first publication of above notice, it shall be the duty of all owners of brands now of record in the office of the Live-Stock Sanitary Board, to file with the secretary of said board a facsimile of the brands now in actual use and owned by them, meaning by the words 'actual use' to include only such brands as are kept up, or meaning brands not kept up on increases but which are holding brands on cattle, horses, mules or asses then actually owned by them. Such filing shall be made upon application blanks provided by the board for the purpose, and shall designate thereon which brands are still used upon increase of stock, and which are simply holding brands. Such forms may require such further facts as to actual use of brands; information as to source of title to brands offered for re-record, whether by original record of same as new brands, or by purchase, or otherwise; and such other information as may fairly enable the board to perform its duty under this amendment. No fees shall be charged or collected for any application blank or form, nor for the re-record of any brands made under the provisions of this act."

LIVE-STOCK SANITARY BOARD.
By E. W. STEPHENS, Secretary.
June 27 to July 11.

SUGGESTIVE ART

Purchaser (who is selecting a wedding gift): "Yes, I rather like that. What is the title?" Picture Dealer: "The Coming Storm"—would make a splendid wedding present."

"Everything comes to him who waits." "Maybe, but that's a mighty poor way of getting things."

SOME TEST

She: "Of course, I like you! Haven't I danced with you six times tonight?" He: "But I don't see any proof in that!" She: "You would if you knew how badly you dance!"

Wilson: "What did that pretty shop girl say when you stole a kiss?" Johnson: "She said, 'Will that be all today?'"
